

Who is Dane Rauschenberg?

At 34, Dane is an extreme athlete who continues to push the boundaries of his sport and his body. After successively running a certified marathon every weekend in 2006 to benefit the Mobile, Alabama chapter of L'Arche Internationale Dane stepped it up a notch in 2010 by running all 202 miles of the American Odyssey Relay – solo- in just over 50 hours. He also:

- Owns the farthest distance ever run (84 miles) at the Presque Isle Personal Endurance Classic - a 12 hour race in Erie, Pennsylvania.
- Ran the 100k Sawtooth Relay as a solo athlete, beating $\frac{1}{4}$ of the 6-person relay teams.
- Won the Inaugural Drake Well Marathon - where twenty participants ran 105.5 times around a high school track in Titusville, Pennsylvania. Rauschenberg also served as the race director for this race to keep his 52 marathon streak alive.
- Won the PT Cruiser Challenge - an event consisting of a 15k, 5k and marathon all in 24 hours.
- Run over 126 lifetime marathons (and counting) with a personal best of 2:49:36.

Awards & Recognition:

- Selected as a member of Team Elite for Powerbar for 2010-2012
- Selected as a Top 10 Finalist for the 2009 Energizer Keep Going Award
- Chosen as the 50 State and DC Marathon Club's 2009 Humanitarian of the Year.
- Created the "Charity Chaser" event where Dane begins dead last and runs down other participants to raise money for local charities. In four marathons, Dane has raised over $65,000.
- Invited as a solo runner to MBC Hangang Marathon in Seoul, Korea. Dane made this his 4th marathon in 13 days and posted a 2:56 time, placing in the top 5%.
- Ran the Boston Marathon course twice in one day, joining race director Dave McGillivray in running the course again mere hours after completing the fabled race in a time of 3:01.
- Invited as a special guest to the Dalian Marathon in China by the running shoe company, Li Ning.
- Chosen as the first person ever to be featured in a Road ID advertisement.
- One of MarathonGuide.com's Outstanding USA Marathoners of the Year – 2006.